

Judge Duane L. Bailey

Duane Bailey
Associate Judge

100
BLACK MEN
OF AMERICA, INC.

Duane L. Bailey is an Associate Circuit Judge of the Third Judicial Circuit which is comprised of Madison and Bond Counties. He has spent the majority of his legal career as an Assistant State's Attorney in Madison County, Illinois; and also served as Director of Student Legal Services for Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Bailey attended Alton Public Schools, Illinois State University and Northwestern University in Chicago, where he received his law degree.

Judge Bailey is very proud of his community service work. He is currently serving a second term as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Madison County Urban League. He is a past Board Chairman of the United Way of Metropolitan St. Louis – Southwest Illinois Division (SWID). He is also past Campaign Chairman for SWID and is currently a member of the United Way of Metropolitan St. Louis' Board. He is a subscribing life member of the Alton Branch N.A.A.C.P. and a member of the 100 Black Men of Alton, Inc.

Judge Bailey is past President of the Metro East Bar Association, which is composed of African American lawyers covering St. Clair and Madison Counties. Duane is President of the Affordable Housing Corporation, which helps develop low cost housing throughout Madison County.

Bailey was born and raised in Alton, IL, the son of James and Mary Bailey. He is a dedicated member of Unity Fellowship Church in Godfrey, IL, and enjoys helping Lois Holmes in the personal development of her two young nieces.