

George Terry
LCCC

George Terry was born in Alton, Illinois the son of Mary (Dickerson) and George Terry. Young George received his education in the Alton school system, Illinois State University and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He is employed by Lewis and Clark Community College, and is currently the Vice-President of Student Life and Coordinator of Affirmative Action/ADA. Terry was the first African-American Athletic Director as well as Dean of LCCC.

Terry has been actively involved in the community as a member of the Alton School Board, a member of the Alton Park and Recreation Commission, the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, and served on the boards of the Salvation Army and Godfrey Human Development Resource Center. He has volunteered with Madison County Urban League, NAACP and the 100 Black Men.